

PPN Midlands Turns 1!

Psychological Professions Network Midlands

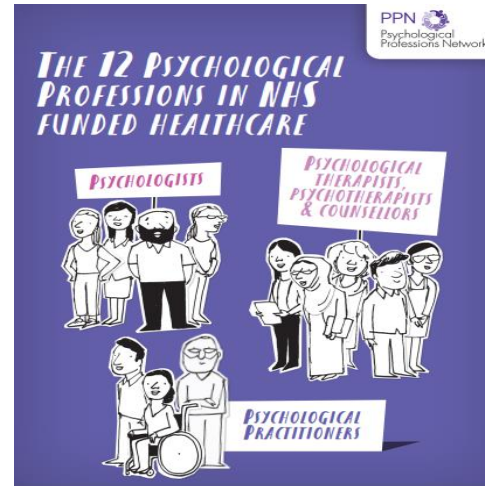

What is the PPN?

The Psychological Professions Network is a multi-professional network bringing together psychological professionals and other stakeholders in NHS commissioned psychological healthcare to maximise the benefits of the psychological professions to the public

The regional Psychological Professions Networks are commissioned by Health Education England to provide a joined-up voice for all psychological professionals in workforce planning and development, and to support excellence in practice.

The PPN Midlands Team

Dr Sunny Kalsy-Lillico
Chair

Marilyn McKoy
Programme Manager

Lauren Ross
Assistant Psychologist

Rebecca Jacobs
Assistant Psychologist

Twitter: @MidlandsPpn

Links
National Diversity
Willingness Support
Vision
Recruitment
Celebrating
Regional Aspiring
Workforce
Leadership
Systems
Challenge
Possibilities
Ideas
Learning
Disadvantage
Help
Connecting Retention
Innovation
Creating
Wellbeing
Growing
Together
Local Discovering Sharing

PPN Midlands “Good Stuff Slate”

